

LOOKING TO INCREASE YOUR INCOME?

For decades, many agents who have promoted permanent life products have increased their income.

However, with the current market conditions, especially for the agents selling health insurance and/or annuities, we have been asked if we could provide a sales system that would simplify the selling of permanent life insurance. The answer is, "Yes we can."

The Retirement Reality Advisor package is FREE to you and once you begin using it on a regular basis, you may wonder how you ever did without the Retirement Reality Advisor selling system. The Retirement Reality Advisor program provides you with the tools, information and support to help you increase sales and to help ease the stress of doing business.

Why Use Retirement Reality Advisor?

We see this concept addressing the needs of a large percentage of your clients. The current information we have available notes that 56% of the families have no individual life insurance. Of those families that do own life insurance, 50% know they do not have enough. 24% with children under 18 want to talk to an agent but will not initiate the call.* This is a huge marketplace. *LIMRA October 2010

The "Self Sales" System

The Retirement Reality Advisor sales process allows the client to determine the client's life insurance needs, the available premium and the length of time they want the coverage.

Agent Training

First, there is on-line training available 24/7. Then there are the quarterly live training webinars conducted by successful agents. There are valuable sales tips and product information on how to assess your client's needs.

Client Training

There is a website presenting stories of individuals who have experienced the benefits of life insurance following a death. A life insurance needs worksheet is also provided so the client can determine their own needs.
